我很感谢HKCC给我机会为进入理想的大学而努力。这个课程提供各种与大学学科紧密相关的商科专业教育科目，通识教育科目则有助增进学生的沟通能力，培养批判性思维和扩大知识面。起初，我担心是否能适应新的学习环境。我很感谢讲师，因为当我在学习或规划升学遇到困难时，他们总是乐于帮助。多谢他们的指导和建议，我已经适应了香港的学习环境，并有了一个清晰的目标。

I am grateful to HKCC for helping me pave the way for pursuing studies at my ideal university. This programme offers a variety of discipline-specific subjects in the business field, which are closely linked with university disciplines. Also, the general education subjects enable students to improve communication skills, cultivate critical thinking and widen their knowledge. In the beginning, I was concerned whether I could adapt to the new learning environment. My appreciation goes to my lecturers, who are really helpful whenever I have difficulty in learning or planning for further studies. Thanks to their advice and inspiration, I have adapted to the learning environment in Hong Kong and have a clear goal now.

因对香港这个国际化大都市的向往和HKCC副学士课程的良好口碑，高中毕业后我就毅然选择了HKCC。有赖HKCC讲师的专业训练和同学的互相帮助，我的学术水平和沟通能力迅速提升。两年后，我获取录读香港理工大学，并入住理大宿舍。这来之不易的成功，有赖HKCC讲师的帮助。进入理大后，我方知HKCC提供的专业科目和先进设施，令我更快地适应理大的学习环境。我心里越发地感激HKCC的讲师和同学，没有他们的鞭策和鼓励，我也难以完成在香港深造的目标。

Yearning to experience Hong Kong as a cosmopolitan city, I decided to study at HKCC, which has a good reputation for offering quality associate degree programmes, after graduating from high school. The professional training provided by HKCC lecturers and the mutual help among classmates improved my academic standard and communication skills rapidly. Two years later, I was admitted to PolyU and offered accommodation in PolyU Student Halls of Residence. This hard-won success was attributable to the help from HKCC lecturers. After entering PolyU, I realised that the professional subjects and state-of-the-art facilities provided by HKCC have facilitated my adaptation to the learning environment at PolyU. I feel deeply grateful to HKCC lecturers and classmates. Without their support and encouragement, it would have been very difficult for me to achieve my goal of furthering studies in Hong Kong.

到香港求学是我自中学时期以来的梦想。内地高考成绩未如理想的我，选择到HKCC继续圆我在香港读大学的梦。HKCC的课程设计和大学类似，科目种类繁多。不少科目注重训练学生的表达和演讲能力，促进全面发展，为升读大学打下良好基础。我十分感谢这两年栽培过我的讲师，让我认识到自己的兴趣所在和找到职业志向，他们是我的良师益友，感谢他们的帮助和支持，使我得以顺利升读香港理工大学。

Pursuing higher education in Hong Kong has been my dream since Junior High School. As my performance in the mainland's National College Entrance Examination was unsatisfactory, I chose to study at HKCC as a springboard for fulfilling my dream of pursuing undergraduate studies in Hong Kong. The curriculum design at HKCC is similar to the one at university, which provides a variety of subjects for students to choose from. Many subjects are designed to develop students' communication and presentation skills, which are conducive to their all-round development and future studies at university. I am very grateful to my lecturers at HKCC who inspired me to find my academic and career interests. They are both my teachers and best friends. Thanks to their support and encouragement, I have entered PolyU to pursue my undergraduate studies.
